I filled out a session interest survey, but I don't remember my selections.

Session selection data is used to determine the interest level of attendees. This information is used to assign speakers to rooms that will accommodate their expected audience size. The selections are not retained, so on the day of the event, attendees may view any session of interest.

I want to attend multiple sessions in the same time slot. Are the other sessions recorded?

Yes! A unique Airmeet link will be sent to attendees to view the conference online. The link will enable participants to watch the conference virtually or log in after the event to watch replays. Please note that due to the sensitive nature of some information certain sessions may not be recorded.

Will presentation slides, session materials, and recordings be shared afterward?

If a speaker allows his/her content to be shared after the presentation, it will be available on the Airmeet platform, along with the session recordings. Attendees should utilize the unique Airmeet link before and after the event to access these resources.

Will photos be taken during the event?

Yes. Photos and/or videos may be captured during the event for promotional and educational purposes. Questions or concerns should be directed to a member of the event team onsite.

What happens if there is severe weather or a travel disruption?

If weather or unforeseen circumstances impact the event, registered attendees will be notified by email as soon as possible. Any schedule or format changes will also be posted through official event communications.

Certificates and Credits

Harrisburg University does not provide certificates of attendance.

If an event has credit opportunities available for membership or educational requirements, it will be mentioned in the opening remarks or offered as an informational tab on the website. Any additional information concerning this subject can requested from ProfessionalEd@HarrisburgU.edu.

Can I register onsite?

No, onsite registration will not be accepted. In-person registration should be completed 5-7 days prior to an event to facilitate catering and the publication of printed materials. Online registration for events is open until the day before the event.
